25X1 8. [] Called on freshman Congresswoman Margaret Heckler (R., Mass.). As soon as I introduced myself, Mrs. Heckler said she was certainly glad to see me and asked me into her office. She was writing her maiden floor speech concerning []

25X1 [] I told her I had no knowledge of the case other than what I read in the newspaper but would be happy in assisting in phrase forming if that were of any interest to her. She said that the State Department had provided her with the facts and her only interest was in assistance in formulating the appropriate language. I spent about 20 minutes with her formulating a short speech of about two paragraphs and she appeared to be delighted with the assistance. I had very little opportunity to talk to her about the Agency but she quite firmly requested that I come back to see her at the earliest opportunity.
